MANIFESTO STARTLES MUSICIAN LOSES LIFE

Veritable Bombshell Is Hurlled by the Revolutionaries. Director of "Nothing But Money" Company Shot to Death.

SCATHING DOCUMENT COMEDIAN WOUNDED

Government. Among Other Accusations, Is Charged With Spending All the Cash of the Russian Empire. Proprietor of Hotel, Charged With the Deeds, Is Also Accused of Having Insulted Actresses of Combination.

Berlin, Dec. 16.—Proletariat organizations of Russia through the "invisible government" hurled a bombshell into the camp of the official government by issuing a manifesto, following the form of the regular imperial document, declaring bankruptcy of treasury, ordering proletariat army everywhere to refuse to pay taxes of any description, to insist upon payment of wages in gold on silver and withdraw all their deposits from savings banks in gold. The manifesto is a terrible indictment of the manner in which the bureaucracy has brought the country to financial ruin, asserting that the government has squandered not only the country's income, but proceeds of foreign loans on railroads, the army and the fleet, leaving the people without schools or roads, yet it was declared there is no money to feed soldiers, and everywhere there are insurrections of beggared and starved troops and sailors. The manifesto even charges the government with using the deposits in the government's savings banks to speculate on the bourse and with covering up its chronic deficits interest on the immense debt by proceeds of foreign loans, which are at last exhausted. The rich, it is further declared, have already taken warning and are converting their property into securities and gold, and sending them abroad.

The only salvation of the country, according to the manifesto, is to overthrow the autocracy by a constituent assembly and the sooner the government falls the better. Therefore, the last source of existence of the old regime, its financial revenue, must be stopped. The document was signed by members of the workmen's council committee of Pan-Russian union and central committees of Social Democrats, Social Revolutionists and Socialists of Poland.

This great step of revolutionaries, which throws down the gauge of battle to the government, was prepared with such secrecy that the authorities were taken off their guard and did not even attempt to prevent its publication in the newspapers. Revolutionary leaders expect it to be followed by reprisals and arrests, but all this has been foreseen. The leaders laid their plans deeply before issuing the manifesto. New committees of various organizations had been elected in the third and fourth degree. If one set of committees are put behind the bars, another will take its place and carry on the work. The League of Leagues was not asked to join in the manifesto, it being regarded with some jealousy by proletariat organizations, which claim to be bearing the brunt of the revolution and will be entitled to the fruits thereof.

Proletariat leaders claim to have absolute knowledge that the government has just issued $125,000,000 in paper money.

Under the provisions of the press law the editor of every paper which has printed the manifesto has rendered himself liable to eight months' imprisonment and $1,500 fine. Now must come the test of the government's power.

It develops that among the papers of M. Krustaleff, president of the executive committee at the time of his arrest, the documents which furnished evidence of a well planned conspiracy to seize and carry off Premier Witte.

JEWISH RIGHTS.

International Society to This End Has Been Founded by a Rabbi.

San Francisco, Dec. 16.—An international society for the promotion of Jewish rights has just been founded by Rev. Dr. Jacob Voorsanger. It is the outcome of the persecution to which the Hebrew community in Russia have been subjected. The object of this society is to actively assist oppressed Jews throughout the world, secure civil rights and begin a political propaganda looking to the elimination of all class legislation from statute books of civilized nations.

Gaffney, S. C., Dec. 16.—The report of a pistol, followed by two others in quick succession, alarmed Gaffney, and a woman's cry of "murder" brought a crowd to the Piedmont Inn, where Milan Bennett, musical director of the "Nothing But Money" dramatic company, was found dead, and Abbott Davison, star and comedian, badly wounded. Both were shot by George Hasty, one of the hotel proprietors.

An inquest was held and the testimony of Verne Sheridan and Miss Bishop was to the effect that George Hasty, after repeatedly insulting the young women, going so far as to endeavor to break into Miss Sheridan's room, was upbraided for his conduct by Davison, and responded by shooting Davison in the abdomen and sending a bullet through Bennett's head. Will Hasty, brother of George Hasty, admitted seeing the shots fired, but claimed they were delivered in self-defense. He claimed that a knife had been found in the hall where the tragedy occurred. George Abbott Davison made a statement in which he practically told the story related by the women. His condition is critical. George Hasty is under arrest. He made no statement.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

Assistant District Attorney Rand Says Goods Were Delivered and Paid For.

New York, Dec. 16.—The prosecution opened its case Friday in the trial of Abraham H. Hummel, the lawyer charged with conspiracy in the celebrated Dodge-Morse divorce case.

Assistant District Attorney Rand, in opening the case, said: "In this case the act of conspiracy as described in law was committed and the goods were delivered and paid for. This particular project was a very bold one. It was aimed not only at the laws of the state, but its object of attack was nothing less than the institution of marriage and the administration of justice."

"Captain James Morse of the city of Boston, a ship owner, had heard Mrs. Morse was a divorced woman. He started to work to see if he could not break up the marriage. He went to the office of Hummel, this defendant, and a few days later Hummel telegraphed to Morse in Boston that he had found such clear traces of fraud in the proceedings that he would take the matter up, if Captain Morse would pay him $15,000. Captain Morse paid Hummel the $15,000 to upset his nephew's marriage."

"In January, 1904, the grand jury presented a charge of perjury against Dodge. On the same day Dodge was at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, on his way to Mexico. He knew about it before the district attorney. Why should Hummel want to get Dodge across the border? But Dodge was pulled off the train in Texas."

"Hummel telegraphed to Captain Morse: 'They've got our man, send us money.'"

"There was a constant demand by Hummel from Captain Morse and not less than $50,000 was paid by him."

The first witness was Abraham H. Kaffenburgh, a member of Hummel's law firm. He was asked whether he had employed counsel in Texas to prevent the extradition of Charles F. Dodge, and also whether, under Hummel's instruction, he attempted to keep Dodge in a perpetual state of intoxication, but to this and to other questions, he replied: "I decline to answer on the grounds that it might degrade and incriminate me." He was excused after a short questioning.

The News says "he was wringing wet and stood in a hole of water and dipped it up until the fire was over."

FOR THE KNOCKERS.

Every town has its quota of knockers—people who busy themselves finding fault with everything and everybody who does not chime in with their particular way of believing. Some are guilty of the habit through thoughtlessness, while there are others who reason all things from a biased standpoint. He who reads this will profit by a careful study of the below clipping:

"What is your opinion of the man or woman who decries the land or country of their birth? What are the thoughts that irresistibly force themselves upon your mind when you hear them say: 'This is the dullest old place I ever saw. I'd rather live anywhere under the sun than here'? All of this, mind you, of the land that has nurtured them through the sunny days of childhood, giving gladness to their youthful hearts, and homes to their loved ones. If no other reason presents itself, this is enough to call forth the deepest reverence from every son of the soil. The heart that can find nothing dear in the land of its nativity may well be asked what it has done to enhance the sanctity of the nest-tree."

HAWTHORN MUSICAL CLUB OF BOSTON

Opera House Dec. 25—Third Attraction
Bryan Lyceum Course.

The club is of international reputation, on the eve of its sixth season of unparalleled success. Each of the five members is an adept on several different, and a thorough artist on one or more instruments. The Dallas News says:

"With enough of the classical to be edifying, sufficient of the old melody to appeal to the heart, and plenty of fun to add spice to the feast, the Hawthorn Club appeared in the Bush Temple of Music last night before a house in which every seat was taken."

"A large audience the first night, they doubled it the second night and the largest audience in the history of the chataqua the third night."—Rev. Homer T. Wilson, San Antonio, Texas—Boulder, (Col.) chataqua.

Don't forget the date, Christmas night. Admission will be 75 cents and $1.00.

Rev. E. L. Shettles will preach at the Methodist church this morning at 11 o'clock, and Dr. Betts will preach at College at the same hour. Dr. Betts will preach here to-night.

HERMAN WHIPS HANLON.

It Was the Fiercest Twenty-Round Bout Ever Had in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Dec. 16.—Kid Herman of Chicago beat Eddie Hanlon of San Francisco in the fiercest twenty-round fight ever seen in Los Angeles. There was not a moment's pause from start to finish of every round that the two lightweights were not in action and the gong found them fighting. Hanlon forced the pace and made it a terrific one from the very start, and never for an instant gave ground.

The eighth, ninth and eleventh rounds were about the best of the contest. Hanlon appeared to have the advantage in strength. In the twentieth round Hanlon had Herman very tired and as the Chicago man lost his guard on the stomach Hanlon pounded him about the body and had him staggering. Referee Eytan's decision was popular. Hanlon was the favorite in the betting at 10 to 8, but Herman was strongly supported.

Withdrawal Contemplated.

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 16.—Midshipman Kimbrough of Tennessee, who was hazed until he was unconscious, is recovering his strength, but on account of the affair and the threats that have been made against him, his relatives are contemplating withdrawing him from the institution.

Only Four Accepted.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—Four days' examination of veniemen to fill a panel of twelve men to try the "beef trust" cases closed with only four men accepted by both sides. Judge Humphrey adjourned court until Monday.

Gilman Re-Elected.

Milwaukee, Dec. 16.—Daniel C. Gilman of Baltimore was re-elected president of the National Civil Service Reform league.

Pure Inventions.

Berlin, Dec. 16.—Advices from St. Petersburg state that the official telegraph agency is authorized to state that reports published abroad to the effect that Irkutsk, Siberia, has been in flames; that fighting occurred between loyal and mutinous troops at Harbin, Manchuria; that another mutiny occurred at Vladivostok and that Kharkoff and Elizabetchgrad are ablaze are pure inventions.

BREATHE HEALING BALSAMS

Hyomei, the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure, Endorsed by Physicians.

No one should confound Hyomei with the patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians.

Its base is the famous eucalyptus oil, well known for its antiseptic qualities. This is combined with aromatic and healing gums and balsams, making a pure liquid which, when used in the Hyomei pocket inhaler fills the air you breathe with germ killing, disease destroying and healing powers that restore health to every part of the throat, nose and lungs.

Hyomei is endorsed by physicians generally. Many of them use it themselves to break up a cold and prevent pneumonia. It is the only natural and rational way of curing catarrh.

Would it be a common sense treatment to try and cure a corn by stomach dosing? Is it not just as foolish to try and cure catarrh by swallowing tablets or liquids? The only natural way to cure this disease and all diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hyomei.

This treatment has been so successful, curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by E. J. Jenkins under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.

BRYAN, TEXAS, DECEMBER 17

BIGGEST FOOL IS THE TRAIN FOOL.

A careful reading of the following from the Paris Advocate will convince all that the editor of that paper has been making trips to the Dallas Fair on the excursion trains:

"There are many degrees, classes and conditions of fools. There are fools in cities, fools in the country, and they are even found on high seas, but the most monumental fool—the gigantic, colossal fool that towers about his fellows like the Rocky mountains tower above the foothills, is the fool who boards an excursion train with a half-pint bottle of tarantula juice and hies himself off to the city to see the sights.

"His foolishness is first made evident by a disposition to talk everybody in the car to death. Then he does a walking stunt, racing up and down the isles to see if Bill Smith of Hogwallow is on the train. He tries to guy people at the stations along the line, and he does everything in his power to make himself an unmitigated and unprecedented nuisance—and he never tries in vain. His silliness is sickening and his idle gibbering is enough to drive a decent man into the jimjams. He may be found on any excursion train, and if his tribe continues to increase railroads will be compelled to carry 'bughouse' compartments on their trains to protect passengers from this class of idiots."

A CHECK TO CHEATS.

A. and M. College Students form an Association for That Purpose.

The corps of cadets of the Agricultural and Mechanical College took a step Friday afternoon that it is believed will practically put an end to all cheating on examinations. During the noon hour a mass meeting of the students was held in the chapel and the organization of a Students' Association was effected. A constitution, previously prepared by a committee appointed some time ago for the purpose, was presented to the body and, after being thoroughly discussed and amended in some minor particulars, was adopted by unanimous vote. The constitution as adopted provides for an executive committee, or council, to be composed of five men from each of the four classes, whose duty it shall be to investigate thoroughly every reported case of cheating. The council is to have power to call witnesses, conduct the investigation, assess penalties, even including suspension and expulsion. Provision is made for appeal to the president and faculty in case of dissatisfaction with the findings of the student council. As the movement, though entirely of student initiation, has the unqualified approval of the president and faculty it is certain that the findings of the student committee will be sustained unless it is plainly evident that serious mistakes have been made.

After the adoption of the constitution the following officers of the Students' Association were elected: J. S. Dean, captain company B, president; R. J. Potts, vice president, and W. G. Moore, secretary-treasurer. At meetings of the various classes held last night the members of the executive council were elected. As the officers and members of the council are earnest, capable students, and the organization has the unanimous backing of the student body, it is believed that whatever remnant of dishonesty there may be among the students will be blotted out.

RUSSIA.

From The Battalion.

The whole world is and has been watching with great interest the upheaval in Russia. There as in all other countries the murmuring peasants and common people have been groveling in the mire under the heel of aristocracy as long as they will and are now rising to claim the rights of man.

As Prof. Ely, in the Coral of Abilene, states the condition past and present very tersely we reproduce in part what he says:

1. Absolute power of Czar.
2. Popular representation a farce.
3. Peasantry practically slaves.
4. Personal liberty unknown.
5. Censorship of the press.
6. No privacy of mails.
7. Education a makebelieve.

The popular government of today.

1. A limited monarchy.
2. A cabinet responsible to the people.
3. A parliament chosen by the people.
4. Immunity of person.
5. Freedom of the press.
6. Right of habeas corpus.
7. Freedom of education.

Further he says: "Yesterday if you said Russia, you meant the Czar and despotism; you meant the Trans-Bakal and Siberian prison; you meant a bloody and bloated aristocracy and an innumerable host of serfs and slaves.

Today if you say Russia, you mean a tottering, limited monarchy, whose neck is in the firm grip of the rising giant of freedom; you mean a people rich in literature, arts and sciences, rich in lands, resources and possibilities, and whose creed is 'Land and Liberty.'"

Red, White, Green Seas.

The colors of pure ocean water and the varying shades observed where impurities are met with are diversified by the coloring effects of the enormous multitudes of various forms of organized life which sometimes mask the natural color of the surface of the sea and tinge extensive areas with remarkable colors. Red appears to be most frequently met with. In the southern parts of the Red sea and in the Arabian gulf large areas are colored blood red by microscopic animalculae, and in the Indian ocean similar forms of life cause, in addition to red, milk white or yellow spots of great extent, the appearance of which is frequently alarming to the ignorant sailor. Off the Guinea coast ships sometimes appear to float in milk. Extensive red streaks are also known to occur in the south Atlantic and south Pacific, which are caused by hosts of small red crustacea. The "Vermilion sea" of California owes its brilliant color to infusoria. Areas colored green have been noted, especially in the arctic regions, which are due to myriads of diatoms, and in some portions of the antarctic seas diatoms of rusty color make the water a dirty brown.

How General Butler Lost a Horse.

While in front of Petersburg General Butler received information that his favorite horse, Almond Eye, had been accidentally killed by falling into a ravine. Upon the departure of his informant he ordered an Irish servant to go and skin him.

"What, is Almond Eye dead?" asked Pat.

"What's that to you? Do as I bid you and ask no questions."

Pat went about his business and in an hour or two returned.

"Well, Pat, where have you been all this time?" sternly demanded the general.

"Skinning the horse, yer honor."

"Does it take nearly two hours to perform such an operation?"

"No, yer honor, but then, you see, it took bout half an hour to catch him," replied Pat.

General Butler cast upon his servant such a ferocious look that Pat thought he meditated skinning an Irishman in revenge for the death of his horse.

Value of Butterflies.

When our juniors see the common white cabbage and sulphur wing butterflies or even the superb Monarch and gorgeous Ajax swallowtails flitting through the fields or at times city streets they perhaps never give thought to the fact that butterflies may be of commercial value. But such is the case. Some of our domestic butterflies on account of rarity more than beauty command prices from one to several dollars, which collectors gladly pay to insure the completeness of their cabinets. Big prices are paid for some of the magnificent butterflies of the morpho and papilio genera, which are rainbow hued in colors and span five feet in wings. These flourish in tropical countries, and it is often necessary for museums to send out special expeditions for them. They range from $10 to $100 in value.—Baltimore Herald.

Haddock Marks.

Why do haddocks carry those peculiar black "finger marks" near the head? Some tell us that they are a memento of the pressure of St. Peter's fingers when he went fishing for the tribute money. On the Yorkshire coast of England they say the devil once determined to build a bridge at Filey. His satanic majesty did not start the bridge for the convenience of the people, but for the destruction of ships and sailors and the annoyance of fishermen in general. In the progress of his work Old Nick dropped his hammer into the sea. Snatching at it hastily, he caught a haddock, and all haddocks carry the imprint of his black fingers to this day.

Conceit.

Conceit is essential to rapid advancement—not overconceit, but conceit in reasonable volume. The conceit of youth becomes the assurance of old age. If you're master of your conceit, you have back of you a slave of unlimited assistance. If conceit is your master, you're doomed to failure. But don't cultivate self conceit. It's a lusty plant. Give it half a chance and it will outgrow your self respect.—N. C. Fowler, Jr., in "Gumption."

Diagnosis.

"I regret to say," remarked the young physician, "that you have peristaltic neurilemma. The symptoms are unmistakable."

"Dear me!" exclaimed the astonished patient. "What in the world is peristaltic neurilemma, doctor?"

"It is, sir, the disease from which you are suffering," answered the young M. D. haughtily.—Chicago News.

Natural Enough.

Jolkley—I once heard a man say that he would rather be an ex-convict than anything else he could think of. Polkley—The idea! How eccentric! Jolkley—Not at all. The man was in the penitentiary at the time.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Reasonable Request.

Lawyer—Your honor, I want an interpreter for my client. Judge—What language does he speak? Lawyer—He's a railroad brakeman.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

BEAUTEOUS ROSE.

(To R. F. H.)

A brightness comes from out thy spirit,
A freshness as of morning time;
A light and beauty thou dost inherit,
Like flower bells in the early chime.
A brightness thou dost make the while
On all around thy pathway here;
A ready hand, and a winning smile;
Seeking to brush away sorrow's tear.

Uplifting and strengthening, day by day,
Those who come upon thy way.
I see thee now as an expanding flower

That opens its petals to the sun,
One by one each radiant power,
Until the perfect blossom is won.
And as the petals soft unclose—
Behold thy life as a Beauteous Rose.
MARY N. BROWN.
Hillsboro, Tex., Dec. 13, 1905.

Miss Lilla Graham McInnis, sponsor of Company "A," A. and M. corps of cadets, Captain Wellboan, commanding, entertained the officers of the company most agreeably on Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McInnis. A bevy of young ladies were present, and with the young officers, formed a most congenial company. Diversity was given to the amusements by the hostess, a pleasing feature being an "auction," in which packages of prepossessing exterior were sold to unsuspecting bidders, and each one proved a good joke on the purchaser. Later the entire company of young ladies and gentlemen took possession of the kitchen and had a jolly "candy pulling." The hostess presented to Capt. Wellboan a pretty A. and M. watch fob, and to each of the other officers an A. and M. pin. These were ornamented with ribbons of various colors corresponding to similar colors on dainty little aprons presented to the young ladies, and partners were chosen by matching the colors. Following the candy making, the kitchen, so bright, cozy and attractive, was further utilized for serving a two course luncheon. The holiday spirit of good cheer, coupled with the thoughtful and perfect hospitality of the hostess and her mother, left nothing to be desired for the further pleasure of the fortunate ones present. Those present were: Misses Jessie Garth, Nonie Adams, Griffith, Crum, Louise Harris, Howell, Ethel Cavitt, Marie Adams, Alma Cole McInnis; Capt.

Wellboan, 1st Lieut. Lenert, 2nd Lieut. Kendrick, 2nd Lieut. Lichte, 1st Sergeant Gilbert, Sergeants Cunningham, Schadt, Puckett, Trenchmann.

Mrs. Edward Hall issued cards for an "At Home" Thursday afternoon, and knowing the pleasures in store for them the recipients of her favor braved the bad weather, which held sway during the major part of the week, and were amply repaid by the warmth and good cheer of the home and the gracious hospitality of the hostess. The decorations were elaborate in the receiving rooms. Red chrysanthemums and candles enriched the hall, where was seen a handsome punch bowl embedded in the gorgeous blossoms. The parlor was similarly adorned in white, while pink tapers and roses enhanced the charm of the library. The dining room was especially attractive. A cut glass vase of red carnations, and ferns, resting upon a Battenburg center piece over red satin, attracted the eye to the pretty oblong table, with bands of red satin ribbons traversing its length and knotted at the ends with red carnations. Cut glass and silver candelabra and bon-bon dishes gleamed in the soft light and completed the appointments. Music was supplied by a Mexican orchestra and a salad course was served. Mrs. Hall's house party included Mesdames G. S. Parker, Jas. H. Webb, E. H. Astin, W. H. Oliver, Robt. M. Gordon, L. L. McInnis, O. H. Astin, G. M. Brandon, A. W. Wilkerson, R. O. Allen, R. S. Webb, Tyler Haswell, Cliff A. Adams, A. M. Waldrop, F. M. Law, Jr., Jno. T. Hanway; Misses Nonie Adams, Ida May Griffith, Lilla Graham McInnis, Alberta Adams, Pauline Webb and little Misses Lilla Adams and Frances Hall.

The pretty and hospitable home of Major and Mrs. Cliff A. Adams was the scene of a delightful meeting of the Bachelor Girls' Club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Nonie Adams was hostess and the meeting was in honor of her guest, Miss Ida May Griffith of Dallas. The rooms were sweet with cut flowers and potted plants, and tables were arranged for six handed forty-two. The cards were four-leaf clovers scored with small gold stars. A dainty set of collars and cuffs, the guest prize, was cut for and won by Miss Crum of Louisville. The club prize, a pretty lace handkerchief, was added to the collection of the invincible Miss Lynn Crudgington. A salad course made the complement of pleasures complete. All the club members were present, also Misses Griffith of Dallas, Crum of Louisville, Howell, Coulter and Ethel Cavitt. The next meeting of the club will be held during Christmas week with Miss Crudgington at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Winters, and will be a Christmas party carrying out the charming holiday effects.

The Bryan Choral Club held the first practice meeting on Friday afternoon. A short business session was held previous to the practice, at which the resignation of Mrs. D. F. Dausby as treasurer was accepted, and Mrs. W. C. Davis was elected to the position. There were twenty-five or thirty ladies present and Mr. Lillebridge, the director, began the work of classifying the voices. He was much pleased with the volume and quality of the voices for satisfactory choral work. The first study will be the Spinning Song from The Flying Dutchman, by Wagner.

Social interest centers about the approaching wedding of Miss Ann Elizabeth Weeden of Austin and Mr. Joe C. Hutcheson, Jr., which will be solemnized Thursday evening, Dec. 21, at 8 o'clock. The wedding will be a quiet home affair, and Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Hutcheson, Miss Rosalie Hutcheson, Dr. Allen Hutcheson and Mr. Palmer Hutcheson will go up for the event. The young people will be at home after January 15 at 3704 Main street. Mr. Hutcheson is building a permanent home in Hyde Park, which will be ready for occupancy in the spring—Houston Post.

The Embroidery Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Pryor at the home of Mrs. W. H. Oliver. Absent members were represented by Miss Nonie Adams, Mrs. D. C. DeMaret, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Taswell Parker. On account of the dark and rainy weather fancy work was left at home, and the ladies spent a pleasant afternoon playing "42" and "500." Bon-bons were passed during the games, and a salad course and coffee followed. The next meeting will be Jan. 9.

The young ladies of the Needle Workers' Club will take advantage of the holiday vacation to give a phantom party at Mike's hall Tuesday evening, Jan. 26.

An informal dance was given at Elks hall Thursday night and much enjoyed by the young people. About fourteen couples were present.

THE CINNAMON TREE.

How the Bark is Gathered and Prepared For Use.

The cinnamon tree grows to a height of from twenty to thirty feet and is sometimes eighteen inches in thickness. The leaves are from four to six inches in length, oval shaped and marked with three principal nerves. They taste very much like cloves. Cinnamon flowers are of a beautiful silky gray on the outside and a light yellow on the inside. The fruit is a small acorn shaped drupe, and when ripe it is quite brown. It is, however, the bark of the cinnamon tree that makes it valuable. The finest comes from the island of Ceylon, where they have two seasons of cinnamon harvest. The first season begins in April and the last in November. The branches of three to five years' growth are cut down, and the epidermis is carefully scraped away. Then the bark is ripped up lengthwise with a knife and gradually loosened until it may be easily removed.

The slices of bark are then placed in the sun to dry, and as they dry they curl up into quills. The next thing is to examine and arrange the cinnamon according to its quality. The persons whose work it is to examine the cinnamon are obliged for this purpose to taste and chew it, although in a short time it produces a very painful effect on their mouths and tongues.

As the cinnamon quills are examined the smaller ones are inserted into the larger, and the whole is then tied up in bundles weighing about eighty-eight pounds each.

In Ceylon the oil of cinnamon is usually prepared by grinding the coarsest pieces of bark, soaking this powder in sea water for two or three days and then distilling. Two oils pass over, one lighter the other heavier than water.

THE ANTELOPE.

His Two White Patches That Act as a Signal Code.

Visitors to the circus and menagerie have noticed the two white patches on antelopes. Those spots are a signal which can be read by the animals which have noses to smell. Even animals whose sense of smell has been lost can read the message which the antelope gives to warn his friends of danger.

The hairs on these patches are long, white and ordinarily point downward. Among the roots of the hair is a gland which secretes a strong musk. Underneath the skin at this point is a broad sheet of muscles which have the power to raise these hairs so that they stand out at all angles like the petals of a huge white chrysanthemum. When an antelope sees danger this muscle acts and the patch flashes out like snow. In the middle of each is a dark brown spot, the musk gland, which frees a great quantity of the musk which can be detected down the wind for a long distance by another antelope. Even man can distinguish this danger signal for some yards.

The antelope has five different sets of glands, each giving forth a different kind of musk for use in its daily life as a means of getting or giving intelligence. The two in the middle of each rump patch has been explained, but the purposes of the others have not yet been fully accounted for.

Evolution of a Name.

An amusing account is given of the evolution of a name. A man named Halfpenny lived in Dublin at the end of the eighteenth century. Having been very successful in business, his children persuaded him to change his name to a more dignified one, which he did by dropping the last letter. In the course of time the orthography was also changed, and when the man died he was buried as Mr. Halpen. The fortunes of the family increased still further, and the son soon dropped the "H." The next transition was an equally easy one, and he who had run the streets as little Kenny Halfpenny came out as Kenneth MacAlpin, the descendant of a hundred kings—London Queen.

A Story of Thackeray.

There is a story of Thackeray shortly after the publication of "Vanity Fair" dining with a friend and receiving an introduction to his next neighbor, "Captain Crawley of the Life guards." Thackeray looked greatly annoyed, scarcely opened his lips to this gentleman and afterward told his host in an aggrieved tone that "he liked a joke as well as any man, but there was a time and a place for all things." No joking allusion to a character of his novel had, however, been designed or perpetrated. The fellow guest actually was a Captain Crawley and held a commission in the Life guards.

Where Gannets Swarm.

One of the most remarkable sights in the world is Bird Island, in South Africa, for the reason that during some months of the year it is literally covered with gannets. Not a foot of ground is to be seen anywhere. Day after day thousands of gannets strut around, and they are so close to each other that the whole island seems actually alive. Those who have seen this sight say that it is one which can never be forgotten.

A Joiner.

"It seems to me," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "that in these days there is no hope for the man who lacks initiative." "I know it," replied her hostess. "That must be one reason why Josiah has such wonderful success. He gets initiated in something new nearly every week."—Chicago Record-Herald.

JESSE JAMES COMING.

HEAD HACKED OFF.

Body Was Cut to Pieces and Flesh Fed to Dogs.

Berlin, Dec. 15.—The following horrible story comes from St. Petersburg: Gustavus Von Henning, a prominent member of nobility, was atrociously murdered at his residence near Riga by a revolutionary band. Two dragons who were detailed to guard the residence were also killed.

A servant, who walked sixty miles to catch a train, brought the details of the horrible event to St. Petersburg. According to the servant, the revolutionists demanded that Von Henning give up his sword. On being told that, as an officer, he could not with honor do so, the revolutionaries shot him. Subsequently his head was hacked off and his body cut to pieces and fed to dogs.

AGAINST ROWDYISM.

Southern Baseball League Has Been Promoted to Class A.

New York, Dec. 15.—Stringent measures for the maintenance of order on the ball field were adopted by the National League of Baseball Clubs, after which the meeting was declared adjourned. The president of the league was vested with absolute power in dealing with managers and disorderly players, and it is evident from the tone of the resolutions passed on the subject that the national organization is determined to stamp out all form of rowdyism in the game.

Another important step taken was the authorization of a compromise proposition on the part of the National league to the members of class A minor leagues, who ask that the drafting prevailing from major organizations be reduced from two players to one, and that the purchase price for drafted players be raised from $750 to $1,500 each.

August Hermann, who was named to represent the National league at a conference of the minor leagues, was authorized to agree to the one man drafting plan, but to raise the purchase price to $1,000 only.

The National league playing season will begin Thursday April 12 and close Oct. 12.

At the meeting of the National Association of Minor Leagues, a report was received from the conference committee on the drafting of players that both the National and American leagues had agreed to draft but one man, fixing the drafting price at $1,000.

The date and place of the regular annual meetin was changed from Jan. 11 at San Francisco, to the second Tuesday in January at Chicago. An effort was made to have the present meeting stand as the annual meeting, but this was voted down.

It was reported that agreements had been reached with the major organizations that as many players as may be desired can be drafted from leagues in classes B, C and D. The drafting price in class B was raised from $500 to $750; in class C, from $300 to $500; in class D, from $200 to $300.

The Southern league was promoted from class B to class A. An adjournment was then taken until the Chicago meeting.

CALL ON PRESIDENT.

Two Hundred Single Statehood Boomers Pay Their Respects.

Washington, Dec. 15.—A delegation of 200 boomers for single statehood to Oklahoma and Indian Territory called on the president Thursday to pay their respects. The members of the delegation were presented by C. G. Jones, the chairman. Mr. Roosevelt was interested in the great badges worn by the delegation. A long white silk ribbon, on which was attractively printed statistics of the important industries of the two territories, was attached to the coat lapels by a button bearing the representation of two hearts, "Oklahoma and Indian Territory," and a beet with the legend: "Two hearts with a single beat." Subsequent to the reception the delegation was photographed on the steps of the white house.

Members of the delegation are earnestly opposed to the incorporation in the act creating the new state a provision prohibiting the sale of liquor in the state. They urge that this is a matter which ought to be left for determination to the people themselves.

His body decomposed and half devoured. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he "came to his death by the providence of God."

TILLMAN CRITICISES.

Raised Question of Whether Shonts Still Worked For Clover Leaf.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The Panama bill was again under consideration by the senate Friday and Mr. Tillman occupied the time given to that subject, except when he gave to questions for, or interruptions by, other senators. He did not indicate any intention of opposing the passage of the canal commission in many of its transactions. He raised the questions as to whether President Shonts is still in the employ of the Clover Leaf railroad, and said that the railway register still carries his name as the head of that road. He also sharply criticized the employment of Secretary Bishop as a press representative, and Mr. Hale joined in this censure, saying that Mr. Bishop's employment in that capacity is a reflection, not only on congress, but on the press. A part of Mr. Tillman's remarks was devoted to a criticism of the president's policy in Santo Domingo, and Mr. Spooner defended the president's course.

Mr. Culberson proposed an amendment to the bill providing that no part of the money appropriated should be used to pay the expenses of a literary bureau.

A resolution by Mr. Carmack, instructing the senate to inquire into reports of brutality practiced by hazers upon students at the naval academy of Annapolis, with a view to putting a stop to such practices, was adopted.

ALL AFFIRMATIVE.

Every Revenue Matter Must Have Its Origin In The House.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The house Friday devoted four and three-quarter hours to lively debate on the possibilities of controlling insurance companies. Two set speeches were the feature, one by Mr. Sherley of Kentucky, on the doctrine of state's rights, and the other by Mr. Cockran, proposing that congress, through its taxing power, should confine all insurance companies to the state in which they are organized.

Mr. Mann of Illinois outlined a proposed means of control he will later present in the form of a bill, leaving it to the insurance companies to voluntarily submit to federal examination and approval. Mr. Williams, minority leader, concluded the debate, holding that control was possible, but not through the taxing powers.

Digressions were indulged in. First, to send a message to the senate returning its bill regarding canal bonds as an usurpation of the constitutional rights of the public to originate revenue legislation and again to discuss hazing at Annapolis. No conclusion was reached on the committee reference of the insurance features of the president's message, which was the matter under consideration.

Mr. Payne explained that the senate bill was clearly a revenue measure and should have originated in the house. This statement was met with applause, which was continued when Mr. Williams took the same position. With further debate, a rising vote was had. As every one stood up in favor of the resolution, the speaker announced, while the house burst into laughter: "386 members have voted in the affirmative. There were no opposing votes."

Again Heard.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Members of the Oklahoma and Indian Territory joint statehood again were heard by the public committee on territories Friday. A number of arguments were made by those favoring and opposing the prohibition amendment.

QUICKLY DONE.

Miners' Convention Soon Disposes of All Unfinished Business.

Shamokin, Pa., Dec. 16.—Delegates to the Anthracite Miners' convention quickly disposed of unfinished business at Saturday's session.

The miners request that operators meet with them to arrange terms of employment to prevail at collieries after April 1 in set is necessary equivalent to a strike if the operators refuse, but it means that the award of the anthracite coal strike commission will become inoperative.

When the convention went into executive session, there was a spirited discussion over the matter of referring important resolutions embodying demands to a special committee, which will seek a conference with the operators. President Mitchell said: "I have received no protests. If there are others now is the time to present them. If any delegates has a plan which he thinks is better than the one adopted, let him present it now."

Wealthy Jews Leaving.

Warsaw, Dec. 16.—Many wealthy Jews are leaving this city owing to the raids on their residences by bands of revolutionary co-religionists calling themselves anarchists. The police are so disorganized that they make no attempt to interfere. One hundred and fifty postal clerks and fifty telegraphers have been threatened. The strikers threaten retaliation.

Bomb Batters Wall.

Radom, Russian Poland, Dec. 16.—A bomb battle at a wall of the postal telegraph offices. No one was hurt. The person who threw the bomb escaped.

Permission Granted.

New York, Dec. 16.—Counsel for William R. Hearst asked the supreme court for permission to withdraw motions to open 131 ballot boxes which were scheduled for argument. The motion was accordingly marked off the record. The application to open these ballot boxes was part of the legal campaign Mr. Hearst has been waging in contest of the recent majority elections.

Tells Why He Is Happy.

Berlin, Dec. 16.—Emperor William in a speech at a reception at Brunswick said: "I am happy because it is possible for me to keep peace for the German empire until the present time."

TWO-HEADED CALF.

Beth of the Heads Grew From One Neck of the Animal.

Sulphur Springs, Tex., Dec. 16.—An unusual freak of nature was viewed by many people at the embalming room of Murray & Wester in this city. The monstrosity was a two-headed calf, to a cow owned by an old negro woman near here. The calf was otherwise perfectly formed and the heads were perfectly shaped, both growing from the neck where one should have been. The freak lived several hours after birth.

INCOME AND EXPENSES.

Auditor Askew of the Railroad Commission Is Preparing Figures.

Austin, Dec. 16.—Auditor Askew of the railroad commission is preparing a statement of income and expense of the Texas roads for the first four months of the current fiscal year, beginning with July 1. It will show an increase in net income over the same period last year. The net income for the last fiscal year was approximately $17,000,000, which was an increase over the preceding year of about $2,000,000. The first four months of this year show an even greater proportionate increase than for the same time last year.

Stedman Not to Retire.

Austin, Dec. 16.—Judge N. A. Stedman is to continue as general attorney for the International and Great Northern railroad, with headquarters in this city, and engage in the general practice of law.

PUSHING ORIENT.

Good Progress Is Being Made Between Sweetwater and San Angelo.

Sweetwater, Tex., Dec. 16.—The work north on the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway from Sweetwater is being pushed. The track is now laid on the main line one mile north of Sagerton and surfacing the main line from Hamlin to the above place, and expects to have the road ready to turn over to the railroad company for operation by Jan. 1. The construction company has a large force at the front, and has its main camp located twelve miles north of Hamlin.

Good progress is being made in the work between Sweetwater and San Angelo. Quite a number of good outfits are at work and are making good progress.

TURQUOISE MINE.

Remarkable Discovery Has Been Made Near Santa Fe, N. M.

El Paso, Dec. 16.—News reaches El Paso that a remarkable turquoise discovery was made Friday twenty-eight miles south of Santa Fe, N. M., on claims owned by Fred Muller and A. B. Renahan of Santa Fe. The discovery was made by Romulo Valles, and in a short time 200 pounds of good turquoise were on the dump. The mine promises to become the largest producer of turquoise in the United States.

Shawnee, Okla., Dec. 16.—Agent G. W. Morgan of the Rock Island, announced that work on a new $100,000 depot would be commenced here by the company the first of the year. Plans contemplate the finest depot in the territory. The structure will extend in length over the entire block between Bell and Broadway streets.

Round Bale Gin Burns.

Shawnee, Okla., Dec. 16.—Round bale gin here was damaged $30,000 by fire. A match dropped into cotton was the cause.

Busby Hotel Oper.

South McAlester, Dec. 16.—The Busby, the new $125,000 hotel, was formally opened with a great number of persons present. Visitors were on hand from several points. Dancing was indulged in and refreshments served.

New York Typothetae Issues Statement to This Effect.

New York, Dec. 16.—Announcement that preparations to handle a big printers' strike have been completed by the employing printers of New York was made Friday by the Typothetae of this city. The eight-hour work day, which the International Typographical Union has decreed shall go into effect on Jan. 1, 1906, is declared to be the cause for issuing the statement.

Enthusiastically Adopted.

Shamokin, Pa., Dec. 16.—The report of the wage scale committee was adopted with a wave of enthusiasm sweeping over the convention of United Mine Workers, in session here. The report given to the press did not specify the demands, but it is almost certain that the eight-hour day and recognition of the union were the principal demands.

Hangs Feb. 23.

HYDE GOES ABROAD.

Will In a Short Time Take Up His Residence at Paris.

New York, Dec. 16.—With all business ties severed and assured he will be no further call for him by the insurance investigation committee, James H. Hyde, according to his friends, will sail for France on the Touraine on Dec. 28, to make his home in Paris, says the Herald. In his house, 9 East Fortieth street, stand boxes, crates and frames in which are packed the household goods, heirlooms and art treasures he has retained, and these will go with him. The house itself is for sale.

Mr. Hyde, since his boyhood, has been a great admirer of the French language, history and customs. He owns a beautiful home in the Avenue Henri Martin, and there he will take up his residence. He has been for years the principal patron as well as founder of the Alliance Francaise. He has encouraged the study of French. He has brought French lecturers to this country and paid for their services. He has been decorated by the French government and has been received by President Loubet.

Mr. Hyde's decision to live in Paris and the date for sailing have both been very carefully guarded secrets. None but his mother, his sister, Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley, and his most intimate friends know it. Not even his servants in his home knew of it. They are to be told this morning and at the same time the oldest of them, those who served his father, will be asked to go with him.

Mrs. Hyde, the mother, and Mrs. Ripley will not keep their residence, but will pay long visits.

DINING ROOM TRAGEDY.

Man Shot Three Times In Back Just As He Sat Down.

Shreveport, Dec. 16.—J. G. Gice of the Gice-Berry Electrical company was murdered Saturday at noon in the Serwich hotel just as he took his seat for dinner by being shot three times in the back. Dr. P. Bush and son, Madden Bush, are under arrest, the latter charged with the killing. It is stated Gice entered the lunch room for dinner when Dr. Bush, it is alleged, spoke unkindly to him, and he replied. The doctor then is alleged to have struck him and the two clinched. Dr. Bush called to his son, who is nineteen years old, to shoot, and he is alleged to have fired four shots, three of which took effect in the back of Gice, killing him instantly.

Dr. Bush and son reside at Sligo, La., and came to this city to attend to some business. Gice, who is a senior partner of the Gice-Berry Electrical company, is very well known here. The killing created wild excitement and the hotel doors were nailed up for a while.

POSITION OF BODIES.

Edna Real Estate Dealer Describes the Scene of the Murders.

San Antonio, Dec. 16.—Will Asbeck of Jackson county was the first witness called Saturday morning in the trial of Monk Gibson. He was followed by L. E. Ward, a real estate dealer of Edna, an owner of property where the crime occurred. He related how he was notified of the crime and described the scene of the murders, and the positions of the bodies. He identified the iron bar and adz with which the murders are supposed to have been committed. He said there were two impressions of a very bloody hand on the adz.

Dr. S. Berg of San Antonio testified of an examination made of Monk Gibson, physically and mentally, in Bexar county jail in October. "I found him very well developed for a boy of his announced age," said the doctor.

Here statements made by Gibson to District Attorney Baker at the time of his examination were recalled, in which Gibson said that while plying he saw two negro men dressed alike chase Mrs. Cendit around the house. Gibson said one of the men pulled him over the field into the house where the dead bodies were. He said a man gave him a name as Woodson Ware and the name of the other man was Will Ware.

Proposition to Change the Route to West Shore Discussed Saturday.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The proposition to change the route of the Sabine lake canal from the bed of the lake to the best shore was argued at length before the secretary of war. Port Arthur contentions were presented by Judge R. A. Guer, assisted by George M. Craig and Jan Vantyne. John W. Yates is also here for the hearing. Former Congressmen Cooper and Colonel W. S. Davidson are here in the interest of Beaumont and Orange. Their position as developed at the hearing now in progress is not to interfere in the plans for the canal, but to oppose any pretext for delay of consummation of the project.
